The Schuylkill River Trail

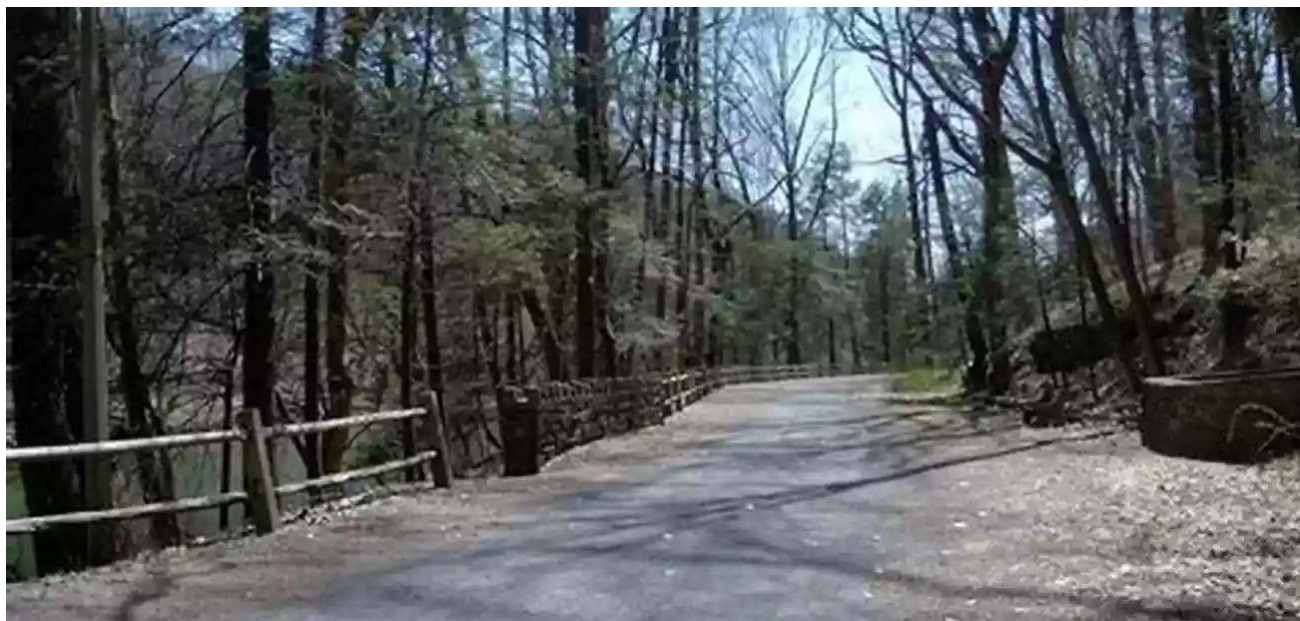

The Schuylkill River Trail is a must-ride for any biking enthusiast in Philadelphia. Stretching over 60 miles, this scenic trail offers stunning views of the Schuylkill River, picturesque bridges, and lush greenery. The path is well-maintained and suitable for both leisurely rides and intense workouts.

Start your ride near the Philadelphia Museum of Art, where you can take a memorable photo with the Rocky statue. From there, follow the trail as it winds along the river, passing through charming neighborhoods and parks. Don't forget to stop at the picturesque Boathouse Row and enjoy the serene atmosphere.

Forbidden Drive in Wissahickon Valley Park

If you are looking for a ride immersed in nature, head to Forbidden Drive in Wissahickon Valley Park. This scenic trail offers a peaceful escape from the hustle and bustle of the city, as it takes you through lush forests, alongside a tranquil creek, and past historic stone bridges.

With multiple access points, you can design a customized ride that suits your preferences. Whether you are seeking a leisurely ride or a challenging climb, Forbidden Drive has something for everyone. Keep an eye out for wildlife, as deer and various bird species are commonly spotted in the park.

Manayunk Bridge Trail

The recently opened Manayunk Bridge Trail provides a unique biking experience in Philadelphia. This elevated trail allows cyclists to ride above the Schuylkill River, offering panoramic views of the city skyline and the surrounding area.

The trail connects Philadelphia with the charming neighborhood of Manayunk, known for its lively Main Street filled with restaurants, cafes, and boutiques. After your ride, take some time to explore the vibrant community and indulge in a well-deserved meal or coffee.

Philly Bike Share

For those who don't have access to a bike or prefer a more flexible option, Philly Bike Share is the perfect choice. With numerous bike stations scattered throughout the city, you can pick up a bike whenever and wherever you want.

Whether you are looking to ride for a few hours or the entire day, Philly Bike Share offers affordable rates and easy-to-use rental bikes. It's a convenient way to explore the city and discover new bike routes at your own pace.

Philadelphia is a bike-friendly city that boasts a wide range of exciting and scenic bike rides. From the majestic Schuylkill River Trail to the peaceful Forbidden Drive and the unique Manayunk Bridge Trail, there is something for everyone.

Grab your bike, put on your helmet, and embark on an adventure through the beautiful streets of Philadelphia. Enjoy the fresh air, stunning views, and the sense of freedom that comes with exploring the city on two wheels. Happy biking!
