

Engaging Article: 63 ESL Holiday Games Activities

Are you an ESL teacher looking for fun and interactive games to spice up your holiday-themed lessons? Look no further! In this article, we present you with 63 exciting ESL holiday games and activities that will keep your students engaged and enhance their language skills.

1. Holiday Vocabulary Bingo

Introduce holiday-related vocabulary words and play a game of Bingo to reinforce their understanding. Create Bingo cards with holiday-themed images or words, then call them out and have the students mark them on their cards. The first one to form a line or a full card wins!

2. Matching Memory Game

Prepare cards with holiday-related images and their corresponding words. Shuffle the cards and lay them face down on the table. Students take turns flipping two cards, trying to find a match. Encourage them to say the word out loud when they find a match.

3. Holiday Charades

Divide the class into teams and provide them with holiday-related vocabulary cards. One student from each team acts out the word on the card without speaking, while the other team members guess the word. The team with the most correct guesses wins!

4. Snowball Spelling

Write holiday-related words on small pieces of paper and crumple them into snowball shapes. Divide the class into teams and have them throw the snowballs at the board or a designated target. Students will then have to uncrumple the snowball and spell the word correctly to earn points for their team.
