

Experience the Raw Beauty of On Bear Ridge Modern Plays

Nestled deep within the iridescent valleys of contemporary theater, On Bear Ridge Modern Plays emerges as a transcendent odyssey that enralls and captivates audiences worldwide. This innovative production takes spectators on an experiential stroll through the wilderness, uncovering the depths of human existence and challenging perspectives on identity, loss, and the human condition.

Penned by one of the most prodigious playwrights of our time, Ed Thomas, On Bear Ridge Modern Plays delves deep into the intertwined stories of John Daniel and Noni, the last shopkeepers in a Welsh village nestled amidst breathtaking landscapes. In an ever-shifting world where memories muddle and dreams blur, the play explores the meaning of life, the struggle against obscurity, and the resilience of hope.

One minute we had customers, the next minute there was no-one.

In a lost village, blurred by redrawn borders, hidden under a crumb on the map, Bear Ridge Stores still stands.

After a hundred years, the family butchers and grocers – a place for odds and ends, contraband goods, and the last petrol pump for 30 miles – is now silent. But owners John Daniel and Noni are not leaving.

They are defiantly drinking the remaining whiskey and remembering good times, when everyone was on the same side and the old language shone. Outside in the dark, a figure is making their way towards them.

A semi-autobiographical story about the places we leave behind, the indelible marks they make on us, and the unreliable memories we hold onto.
