Discovering the Origins

The Furious Massacring Sword and the Eternal Hacking Call Of The Oath have fascinating backstories that date back centuries. Legend has it that the Furious Massacring Sword was forged by a once powerful warlock from an ancient star, harnessing the energy of a long-lost constellation. Its purpose was to bring balance to the realms and to restore justice in a world plagued by evil. On the other hand, the Eternal Hacking Call Of The Oath was molded by a secretive guild of elite hackers who aimed to disrupt the world order and unleash chaos.

As time passed, both artifacts became legendary, with their names whispered in stories passed down through generations. They acquired an almost mythical status, attracting individuals with both noble and malevolent intentions.

"Brotherhood? Clan? It is utterly ridiculous!"

They had been bosom buddies, almost like blood brothers. The two young talented masters of Nan Clan enjoyed great respect. However, everything was completely different now.

Ricky Nan was not a young talented master anymore, but a jerk in everyone's eyes. All this was Nate's fault, despite their close friendship, right from childhood. Nate Nan, set as the successor of Nan Clan, now treated him like a stranger. "Father, I will take revenge for you and get back everything we should have deserved!"
