I was a young beautiful female and all I wanted out of life, was to actually live my life to the fullest and have the pleasure of enjoying a happy life. But of course things didn't always turn out to be like so. I lost my father at a young age, he was the man who made my heart melt, make my eyes like up like stars, he was my hero in every sense. After the burial of my father circumstances began to spiral out of control. I was missing something in life, I knew it was my father. I knew I missed the fatherly love. Emptiness filled me making me vulnerable to these monsters living amongst us. Years later, I was hypnotized, victimized and dickimized by a man I fell deeply in love with. Our relationship was beyond toxic yet I felt like there was no way out. The cheating and the beatings should have been enough for me to go but how could I when he had my soul even worse he had my mind. He was my master, turned my entire life into a disaster. I became his slave. My prince charming turned into my not so beautiful nightmare. 3 years of hell... The glory is that I'm alive to tell my story, the glory is that I'm still standing strong...

I survived it all....the beatings, the lies, the cheating, the uninvited climbs between my thighs... Thank God it didn't kill me, that God he didn't kill me, thank God I'm alive to tell my story. Thank God that I was able to break the chain and realized that Lyfe Matters, my 3 years of hell made me who I am today. Strong and a fighter. My 3 years of hell showed me that being a prisoner in my own body was unacceptable, I'm free no more disasters a master is no longer in need. A survivor I am, because I Broke The Chain...
