Their vacation at the beach house is reaching the end, which means Kara, Oliver and the others all have to attend the Bowen Family reunion.

Oliver's uncle is in charge this year, and he's decided to change it up. Instead of a dinner, there's a masquerade and instead of it being family and their guests, he's invited a slew of other people in the area.

While trying to find Oliver in the crowd of masked people, Kara is approached by someone who thinks he knows her quite well.

How far is this fellow going to push? How will Oliver react when he finds these two being too close for comfort? And what is Kara surprised she wants to do?
