Combine the emotional intensity of The Hunger Games with the thrill of Divergent and you have the stunning debut novel Sin. A building love story that is both delicate and gripping as the characters are forced to survive in the remains of a world war packed full of action, danger and underlying conflict.

It was in the year 2047 when The Invasion began. After escaping from a labor camp occupied by the Chinese, Summer finds herself roaming the Rocky Mountains with her small family and a dangerous stranger named Bridger.

Summer wields two axes as she vies to protect her family from the dangers of starvation and attack from others, yet a burden of shame eats away at her, since no one else knows of Bridger's threats if she refuses to sleep with him.

However, all of that is about to change when they come across another band of survivors who are connected to Summer's past. One of the men in the group is her former professor, the other, her unspoken desire, Julian. As they search for an elusive group known as the Caravan, Summer must fight for survival while wrestling with Bridger's demands and the forbidden feelings she still harbors for Julian.

The Survival Romance Fiction you've been waiting for...

Sin is a Survival Romance Fiction focused on a defiant female protagonist who throws off the poisonous grip of shame to fight for her family, her survival, but most importantly her own dignity. Set in a world where the new order has destroyed the familiarity of modern life, it offers a riveting backdrop of excitement and danger as the characters battle the wildness of Nature and their own clashes with each other.
