Dave Rearwin, an avid surfer and language enthusiast, recognized the need for a surfing-specific Spanish learning program. Having traveled extensively to the beautiful beaches of Spain, Dave developed a comprehensive guide to help fellow surfers make the most of their foreign surfing adventures.

About Dave Rearwin

Dave Rearwin, the mastermind behind Spanish for Surfers, is not only a highly skilled surfer but also a passionate linguist. His love for both surfing and languages led him to combine his two passions and create a unique program tailored for surfers.

With over a decade of experience teaching Spanish, Dave has perfected his teaching methods to cater specifically to surfers' needs. His aim is not simply to teach vocabulary and grammar but to provide surfers with the ability to connect with locals, immerse in the culture, and navigate various situations confidently.

Spanish for Surfers Program

In his meticulously crafted program, Spanish for Surfers, Dave Rearwin covers all aspects of the Spanish language that surfers are likely to encounter during their trips. From basic communication skills, such as greetings and ordering food, to more advanced topics like negotiating surfboard rentals and discussing surfing techniques, Dave leaves no wave unturned.

The program utilizes a variety of learning resources, including interactive online lessons, video tutorials, audio materials, and a tailored phrasebook specific to surfers. Dave's teaching style is dynamic and engaging, ensuring that learners stay motivated throughout their language journey.

Benefits of Spanish for Surfers

By learning Spanish with Dave Rearwin's program, surfers unlock a wealth of benefits that will enhance their surfing adventures in Spain:

- Build connections with locals and other fellow surfers.
- Immerse in the rich Spanish surf culture.
- Navigate daily situations confidently.
- Discover hidden surf spots only known to the locals.
- Make informed choices when renting equipment or booking surf lessons.
- Experience a more personalized and authentic trip, off the beaten path.

Not your ordinary Spanish book.

...backwash, rip current, closeout set, reef break, duck dive, drop in, shorebreak...the vocabulary of surfing, in one place; plus more general items of the “how far is it?” variety.

Over 500 words and expressions dealing with surf, surfing, and some of the things you may need to say (like those dealing with injuries) when you’re on your own in Spanish. Includes sample phrases and short sentences to show the use of many terms in context. And there are a over a dozen images of waves, surfers, beaches and surf equipment, labeled with vocabulary items in Spanish for quick reference and to help you learn through direct association.

Arranged alphabetically for scrolling—or use the search function on your Kindle viewing device to quickly access the word you want.

Make your next surf trip to Latin America or Spain more pleasant—and maybe even safer—by bringing this handy guide to everyday Spanish, with a focus on the words and phrases you’ll use in and around the surf zone.

Author Dave Rearwin grew up with Spanish and ended up teaching the language in a variety of settings, from American universities to a college in Japan. He also grew up surfing, made his first serious surf trip deep into mainland Mexico in the 1960s and was very glad to have the language; later trips (which featured a number of adventures that required some fast talking) made him even gladder. This book is the result of his surf travel experiences.
