

The 1915 Campaign: British Expeditionary Force Rides into Battle as Heroes

The Heroic Advancement of the British Expeditionary Force in the 1915 Campaign

The year was 1915. The British Expeditionary Force (BEF) stood ready on the western front, determined to showcase their strength, resilience, and unyielding determination. This distinguished military campaign, taking place during World War I, would forever be remembered for the bravery exhibited by the men of the BEF.

The Prelude: Setting the Stage for the BEF

The BEF began its engagement in 1914, with the goal of supporting France against the German forces. However, it was the year 1915 that marked a significant turning point for the British troops. The spring of that year witnessed the Battle of Neuve Chapelle, a precursor to the upcoming intense engagements ahead.
