World of Avian

Jaden Withers is your average middle-school kid who gets nagged by every member of his family. His mom tells him to clean his room, his dad wants him to work in the garage with him, and his little sister wants him to play dolls with her. To get away from it all, Jaden usually spends hours upon hours playing videogames within the comfort of his messy room.

However, when the Withers' "Fun-day Friday" arrives, Jaden has no intention of joining in with his family's boring activities. Instead, he rushes on home to play the new exciting game, World of Avian. But that's where all the trouble begins. Before this young boy could even play, he makes a wish to play inside the game. Suddenly, his television screen lights up and within seconds, he finds himself in another world—the World of Avian.

Now that his wish had come true, Jaden seems to never want to leave. But what happens when he starts to realize that he wants to go back home? He's stuck inside the game, but there's a way to get out. Will Jaden do everything it takes to go back home to his family?
