This is a book about horses, and it is a book about life. It is, at its heart, about having a happy horse, but it is also an exploration of the human psyche. Its central thesis is that the greatest bit of kit anyone has in the training and care of a horse is the human mind. And its most delightful discovery is that all the elements that go into true connection and relationship with your horse will enhance your human relationships as well.

It was written during the global pandemic of 2020, and it reflects some of the stresses and strains of that strange and unsettling year. It also demonstrates that one of the most potent antidotes to turbulent and uncertain times is to dedicate yourself to something above and beyond yourself - in this case, a grand red mare and her merry herd.

It is a book about resilience and creativity and imagination. It has moments of goofiness and it veers off on occasional tangents into the purely speculative. It does not shy away from disaster, but it gallops always towards hope.

It is, as are all the Happy Horse books, about love. And it does not apologise for that.
