However, following an encounter with Franciscan friars, he was deeply inspired by their piety and selflessness. Struck by an overwhelming sense of calling, he decided to abandon his wealth and status to dedicate his life to God.

Joining the Franciscan Order, Fernando took the name Anthony, in honor of Saint Anthony of the Desert. As he fervently studied theology and scripture, it became clear that teaching was his true vocation. Anthony delved into various subjects, eager to expand his knowledge beyond the borders of conventional education.
