A couple of guitars. A microphone. A drum set. A bass. That's all this band needs to change their lives. To change the world.

It all starts when seventeen-year-old guitarist Violet Oakes meets singer Troy O'Donnell at band auditions. And along with rhythm guitarist Naomi Wing, bassist Meili Tolman, and drummer Ashton Tyler, they strive to become the best high school rock band in existence.

This story of music, romance, and mystery follows five talented strangers who build an everlasting friendship through their wicked guitar riffs, dynamic drum beats, irresistible basslines, and breathtaking vocals. But when the cracks in the foundation of the band become deeper and deeper, will they finally find success or will they ultimately break apart?
